FOREWORD

The statistical summary of the student population of The University of Michigan for the year 1961-62 is presented here in the form of tables and figures. Enrollment information, honor-point averages, degrees granted, and other interesting data are summarized. Additional detailed information is available in the Statistical Service of the Office of Registration and Records.

The other services given by this office are in the areas of orientation, registration, recording, Selective Service certification and counseling, and the furnishing of diplomas and transcripts. Comments and suggestions for the improvement of these services and this report are most welcome.

THE OFFICE OF REGISTRATION AND RECORDS

ENROLLMENT

For the ninth consecutive year the residence credit enrollment has exceeded the previous fall or spring semester. In the fall of 1961, 25,689 students were enrolled for residence credit in degree programs, resulting in a 51 per cent increase in fall enrollment since 1952. An additional 4,117 were enrolled in credit courses at University centers. The total enrollment for the year was 39,467. This was 10,477 students more than in 1952-53.

The tables and figures that follow describe in detail the enrollment by period and unit at the University. Prescribed procedures were followed in accounting the number of students registered at the University. The year includes the 1961 Summer Session, the 1961-1962 first semester, and the 1961-1962 second semester. Only those students who remained beyond the total refund in any period are included. Post-graduate registrations are considered to be short-course enrollments if less than four weeks in the summer or less than eight weeks during the regular semesters. Any apparent numerical discrepancies in total are the result of students who are enrolled in two or more units and counted but once in the net total.

Extramural students in certificate programs in Group III are counted in the summary only. All other groups mentioned in the summary are included in the tables on geographical distribution of students since they constitute a service of instruction to the people of the state, the nation, and other areas.

In the summary, enrollments have been divided into groups as follows:

I-A	Students in University degree or postgraduate professional residence credit-level programs	33,492
I-B	Students in University postgraduate professional programs of fewer than four weeks in the summer session or fewer than eight weeks during either semester	1,285
II-A 1	Students in University Extension credit courses offered in the following areas: Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Detroit, Dearborn, Escanaba, Flint, Grand Rapids, Port Huron, Saginaw, and Traverse City. Classes were also held in forty-six other Michigan communities	6,143
II-A 2	Students in University Extension credit courses offered through correspondence	787
II-B	Students in extramural postgraduate programs in medicine, offered at twenty-two centers in the state	820
III-A	Students in University Extension certificate classes, designed to assist the mature individual who is seeking continued study along lines not covered in regular University courses	3,001
III-B	Students in University Extension certificate courses offered through correspondence	722

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE STUDENT POPULATION

Great interest has been exhibited in the characteristics of the student population. This was evident from the number of inquiries about the 1961-1962 student groups. The following tables and figures answer many of these inquiries by showing the enrollment by class level and marital status. Enrollment by fields of specialization is presented for the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

The number of married graduate/graduate-professional male students surpasses the number of single graduate students by a wide margin. Again this year the total number of married students is above the previous year. One out of four students who attend the University is married.

The graduate/graduate-professional enrollments continue to account for more than 41 per cent of the total enrollment during the academic year and nearly 54 per cent during the summer session.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The academic achievement of undergraduate students for the year 1961-1962 is given in the following tables. These tables indicate the academic average of selected groups during the fall and spring semesters. Although there is a slight drop from the preceeding year, the averages generally remain above those recorded in past years. The women, as usual, achieved higher averages than the men.

It should be emphasized that only undergraduate students are included. The grades for students in the School of Dentistry, the graduate School, the Law School, the Medical School, and the School of Social Work and the graduate students in the School of Business Administration, the School of Music, the School of Natural Resources, the College of Pharmacy, and the School of Public Health have been excluded, as well as those for the students in the Flint College. Freshmen are defined as students who entered the University in the fall of 1961 or in the spring of 1962 with less than one semester of college experience.

The thirty-ninth Honors Convocation, held on May 11, 1962, recognized the achievement of 917 undergraduate students who attained a grade-point average of 3.5 for the preceeding two semesters or freshmen who had earned this average for their first semester. Nearly 10 per cent of the seniors were honored.

1961-62	68,693	34,575.00	145,072

The constant increase in the number of individual requests for transcripts is shown above. In 1955 the transcript fee was increased to $1.00; this accounts for the unusual increase in the "Amount Received" column. Transcripts were used as grade reports to the students and to their deans and departments. These reports were printed en masse at the end of each semester and summer session. In addition, copies of transcripts of graduates of Michigan high schools and junior colleges are sent to the schools when the students receive their first degree from the University.

DEGREES AND AWARDS

A total of 6,342 degrees was granted by the University during the year. This figure represents 96 different degrees in 162 fields of specialization. Of all the degrees granted, 50.3 per cent were bachelor's degrees, 32.7 per cent were master's degrees, 5.8 per cent were doctorates, and 11.2 per cent were graduate-professional degrees. The total number of students who received degrees is 19 per cent of the total enrollment in degree programs. The number of graduate degrees granted is 24 per cent of the total graduate enrollment.

GEOGRAPHICAL ORIGIN OF STUDENTS

The University of Michigan again served students from every Michigan county. Numerically, eight counties supplied the bulk of the students; when considered as a ratio of the population, the representation was nearly equal throughout the state.

Every state, the District of Columbia, the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and ninety-nine foreign nations were represented in the student body.

Geographical distributions were made according to the home address given by the student at the time of his registration. Table XXII, below, and Figure 7, following, indicate these distributions.

RETURNING STUDENTS, FRESHMEN, AND TRANSFER STUDENTS

The following tables describe the type of entry of the students who enrolled during the year. By comparing similar tables from last year the distribution of the 1,151 increase in the fall enrollment can be noted. Generally, all types of entry increased during the year with the exception of new freshmen. Several tables showing the per cent and number of students who enrolled during the spring, summer, and fall terms are presented. These studies represent the first intensive study of persistence of students during these enrollment periods.

The character of the freshman groups remains similar to that of previous years. We were pleased to note that nearly all the freshmen completed their first year. Numerous data relative to this freshman group were obtained and presented during the year. These studies may be examined upon request.

Enrollment figures and other data pertaining to transfer students are presented for the fall and spring semesters.
